Welcome

To Wincham Park

This is indeed an historic day for Witton Albion Football Club. Not only have we reached this stage of the FA Cup for the first time in 24 years, but we play host to Bolton Wanderers in what has been generally acclaimed as the tie of the round.

In welcoming the Players, Officials and Supporters of Bolton, we are conscious of their standing as one of the great clubs in English football. Theirs is a proud history and rightly so. Although recently the club has been going through a lean spell, who can doubt that one day they will re-establish themselves amongst football's elite. They have not, as yet, been defeated in the Cup by non-league opposition and will be extra keen to retain that record today.

On the other hand, Stan and the lads will be looking to extend the record-breaking sequence which has been the hall-mark of our season so far. So will I, having recently returned after a spell in sunnier climes, I have yet to see anyone lower our colours this season.

It is also nice to welcome Barry Davies and the BBC team on their first visit to Wincham Park and hope it may not be too long before we are once again 'on the box'.

And now an appeal to a tiny minority of supporters who tend to let the club down with inane and obscene chanting. We thought we had eliminated this problem, but it has, due to a few, raised its ugly head again. It is club policy to stamp out such offensive behaviour and if it persists, ban the culprits. Try to be original lads — shout like heck — but keep it clean.

My thanks to the Directors, Supporters and Ground-staff who have beavered away for long hours in order that we could stage this and to sponsors and advertisers for their generous support.

Let us be worthy of the occasion, — enjoy the game.

IAN DOBSON

One of the 12 Founder Members of the Football League, the Wanderers were originally known as Christ Church when they were formed in 1874. In 1877 the present name was adopted — a name which was to become one of the best known in English Football.

The Wanderers moved to their current home at Burnden Park in 1895 after spells at Park Recreation Ground, Cockles Field and Pikes Lane.

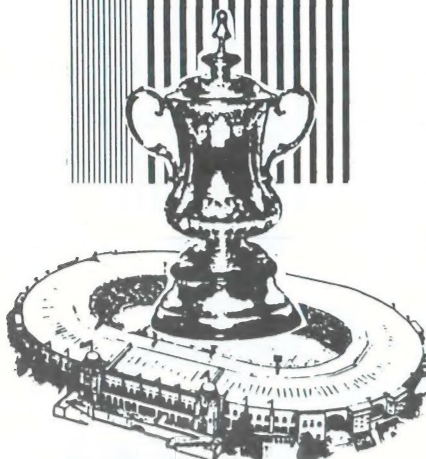

Bolton was the first winner of the F.A. Cup Final following its move to Wembley Stadium in 1923. An estimated 200,000 packed the Empire Stadium to overflowing with a further 500,000 locked outside. The Wanderers dominated the competition in the twenties, going on to lift the Cup in 1926 and 1929, but they had to wait until 1958 for their next major honour. Then the legendary Nat Lofthouse led the team to further F.A. Cup glory when they beat the Munich ravaged Manchester United side by 2-0.

In the League, Bolton enjoyed an unbroken First Division spell from 1911-1933 and again from 1935-1964. In 1970-71 the Club dropped into the Third Division for the first time in their history. Two years later they were promoted as champions.

First Division status was regained at the end of 1977/78 season being promoted as champions after finishing in Fourth place in the Second Division. Relegation followed in 1980 and Bolton found themselves back in the Third Division in 1983. In 1987 they were relegated to Division Four for the first time but twelve months later won promotion.

Bolton Wanderers returned to Wembley, the scene of so many triumphs in May 1986 as finalists in the Freight Rover Trophy losing to Bristol City. Three years later they returned again in the newly named Sherpa Van Trophy, this time tasting success in a 4-1 victory over Torquay United.

FROM THE PRESS BOX

By Mike Talbot-Butler
(Sports Editor, Northwich Guardian)

It is not a major claim to fame — and I would be interested to be proved wrong — but I believe I may be the only person here today who has seen every post-war FA Cup-tie Witton have played against Football League opposition.

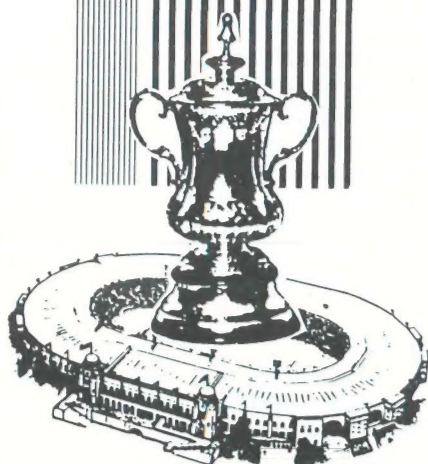

You have only needed to see six games to have achieved this, mind you, but you do need to have been around the Mid-Cheshire soccer scene a long time and a good memory is useful.

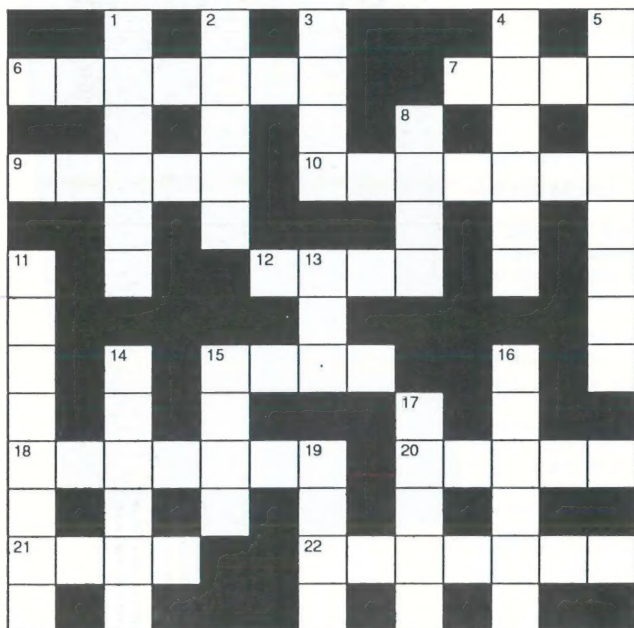

My baptism came in December, 1951 when I was a newly-arrived cub reporter, covering the 2nd Round visit of the then Third Division North side Workington to the Central Ground. Albion led 3-1 only for a nameless goalkeeper to have a nightmare as the Reds came back to draw 3-3 in front of 6,500 fans. Monday's draw for the winners to visit Liverpool raised the re-play gate to 7,200 at Borough Park where Workington won 1-0 after a foul on Jack Robinson.

There were only two years to wait for the next FA Cup highlights, when star-studded Grimsby Town, captained by Jimmy Scotson, came to town, again in round two. There was another massive crowd of 6,100 to see what the Cheshire County League leaders could do. Press coverage was so intense that even the doyen from the Manchester Guardian, Eric Todd, was denied admission to our little box and had to cover the match from a chair on the touchline. It was 1-1 and Albion lost that re-play, too, although rather more decisively by a 6-1 margin. And what a night we had coming home from the East Coast. Our coach was fogbound on the Pennines and I can remember sitting up all night talking cricket with full-back Peter Greenwood, then a leading Lancashire all-rounder. We got back to Northwich at 6 a.m., I staggered to the office, tapped out my report and went to bed.

Next time Witton stole some of the national limelight was in 1957-58 when they visited Tranmere Rovers in the first round. This was Alf Ashley's swansong and not a vintage Albion side, although they put up a terrific performance in front of 9,300 fans at Prenton Park. Ian Duthie scored a fine goal, but ex-Ireland and Everton international winger Tommy Eglington ran down the centre of the pitch to score a late winner.

The last occasion Albion appeared in the "competition proper" as they sometimes call it will be within the living memory of anyone under 30 — it was that fateful tie against Bradford on the now long since gone Park Avenue ground, in November 1966. Ken Barnes led undoubtedly the best footballing side I have ever seen in Witton colours and a major upset was on the cards when his men led 2-0. But then the inspirational Jimmy MacDonald was stretched off, Peter Mellor did not have one of his best days and the Fourth Division outfit scraped through 3-2. That was the year England won the World cup and that's how long ago Witton really got involved in the big time so we're overdue — all-ticket crowd, BBC cameras, Bolton Wanderers and all — for a cracking afternoon. All I want now is to watch the "Shock of the Day" on the box-tonight, then I can die happy!

The Force Behind Witton

Stan Allan and John Davison

STAN ALLAN who won everything the non-league game has to offer, became Witton Albion's manager in May 1987, firstly on the normal part-time basis but with this club remaining very ambitious he became our very first full-time manager three years ago.

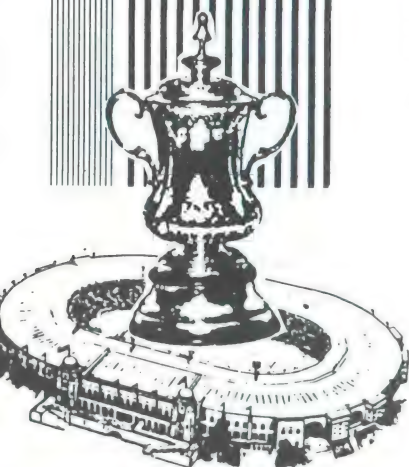

Now aged 44 — snap! — Stan commenced his career with Kirkby Town as a speedy and talented full-back. He then moved to Skelmersdale United and had four very successful seasons playing alongside the likes of Steve Heighway and Mickey Burns. Whilst there he completed the first part of a rare double — FA Amateur Cup Winners Medal for his part in the 4-1 win over Dagenham in the 1971 Final.

Stan joined Altrincham in 1972 and spent a total of 14 seasons there. His last match for Alty was on November 12th 1983, by which time he'd made over 600 appearances. A few highspots during this spell were a further Wembley appearance in the 1982 FA Trophy Final making him only the second player to appear in both Finals. He was very much part of Altrincham's exciting FA Cup runs and played against Everton and Tottenham when, of course, the Robins took both to replays.

Stan stayed on at Altrincham being appointed Club Coach under John King. An approach by Caernarfon Town persuaded him to sever his connections in March 1987 but he found travelling difficult and as he has proved their loss was very much Witton's gain.

JOHN DAVISON who Stan persuaded to join the Albion as player/coach is held in very high esteem by the non-league fraternity. He also was a "veteran" of Altrincham's glory years and is still the most capped Non-league International (24 matches). John who's just had his 35th birthday, started his career at Burnley and also appeared for Runcorn and Bangor City. This season he even donned the stripes for a magic 30 minutes down at Moor Green contributing to what turned out to be a cake-walk in extra time."

The Bolton “Lion”

Nat Lofthouse is the most famous player to wear the white shirt of Bolton Wanderers.

He signed for the Club in September 1939 and played in 452 League games scoring 255 goals before his retirement in 1961. His first team debut was against Bury in March 1941 and his last appearance was in December 1960 against Birmingham City at St. Andrews. Nat made a further 49 F.A. Cup appearances scoring 27 goals and two League Cup appearances scoring three goals.

Between 1951 and 1959 he won 33 England Caps scoring 30 goals for his country.

Nat Lofthouse captained Bolton Wanderers in the 1958 F.A. Cup Final, scoring both goals in the 2-0 victory over Manchester United.

He gained the nickname of ‘The Lion of Vienna’ after scoring the winning goal for England against Austria in Vienna in 1952. It was his second goal in England’s 3-2 victory and he ran half the length of the pitch with the ball to score.

Nat Lofthouse is now President of Bolton Wanderers and manages the Executive Suite at Burnden Park.

This Season's Wembley Trail

The original entry list of 563 clubs has now been pruned down to 124 teams, the 92 who made up the Football League plus the 32 non-league clubs who very often find their "Wembley" being staged at the First Round Proper that of course is being staged over this week-end.

Below is the full draw, still regionalised at this stage, with the winning 40 teams going forward to the Second Round to be played December 8th. The elite 44 teams, of course do not enter until the Third Round at the beginning of next year.

The non-league sides are in CAPITAL Letters with the HFS Loans League teams emphasised in BOLD lettering. Here's wishing the very best to all 32 of them.

Bolton's Record v Non-League Clubs

Today brings a fairly rare event in the history of Bolton Wanderers Football Club, in the shape of a competitive match versus a team not part of the Football League. To actually play on a non-league club ground is even rarer for them and in fact this afternoon is only the third occasion Wanderers have stepped out onto non-league turf, certainly since the F.A. Cup was revamped in the mid-twenties. By quirks of fate both grounds where Bolton paraded their skills now host Football League football — now is that an omen for Wincham Park's future? — time will no doubt tell.

Obviously the main reason non-league opposition has been scarce is that Wanderers spent all but two seasons in either the First or Second Division up until 1983 thus they were exempt from the F.A. Cup competition until the Third Round. Below is all the previous ties played, since 1926, against non-league teams:-

30/ 1/54 — 4th Round

v Headington United (A) Won 4-2

Attendance: 16,600

BOLTON TEAM:

Hanson, Ball, Banks, Wheeler, Barrass, Bell, Holden, Moir, Lofthouse, Stevens, Perry.

8/ 1/64 — 3rd Round Replay

BOLTON TEAM:

Showed just the one change from the above — Taylor replacing Davison.

SCORERS:

20/11/71 1st Round

v Bangor City (H) Won 3-0

The FA Cup is the most glamorous of all cup competitions, more so now for non-league clubs because of the BBC's superb coverage from Round One, giving greater exposure of the semi-professional game to the millions who tune in on Saturday evenings. Those of you who have BSB will be able to watch the Altrincham v Huddersfield tie tomorrow afternoon live; I think that's the first time this season that a non-league side have featured in a live transmission. Anyway, let's look at today's ties featuring non-league clubs.

CHORLEY v BURY

Plenty of pies'n peas on sale at Victory Park in this Lancashire derby, Chorley having an indifferent season in the HFS, hope to emulate the performances of the team that put Wolves out of the '87 competition, — can't see it, though they may take Bury to a replay.

BISHOP AUCKLAND v BARROW

One could class this as a cross-country derby considering the travelling that Barrow normally have to do. Both sides doing reasonably well, but Bishops, who have invested heavily this season, could make ground advantage tell against the FA trophy holders.

STAFFORD v BURNLEY

Rangers will be hoping that it's third time lucky for them in this attractive tie after failing at the first round hurdle in the past two seasons. They will have to be at their best to force a replay at Turf Moor.

HALESOWEN v TRANMERE

Rovers boss John King won't relish the trip to The Grove where a capacity 5,000 is expected. All the makings of an upset here.

ATHERSTONE v FLEETWOOD

Both doing well in their respective leagues, a hard one to predict. I'll go for a draw, with the 'Fishermen' to win the replay.

RUNCORN v HARTLEPOOL

This time last year you'd have put your money on the 'Linnets' to win, but recent form and the possible suspension of goal-machine Spike Carter, points to success for the NE club.

TAMWORTH v WHITLEY BAY

The Lamb Ground should be packed for this non-league clash. Tamworth, current leaders of the Beazer Midland League and last year's F.A. Cup giant-killers. I don't anticipate glory this time for the 'Bays'. Home advantage to count.

SCARBOROUGH v LEEK

The Yorkshire outfit, victims of Whitley Bay last season should account for Leek, who were exempt till this stage of the competition due to being FA Trophy finalists last season.

TELFORD v STOKE CITY

Rumoured to be BSB's live Saturday game. Telford are not the force they were when humbling League sides in the past. However, Stoke are going through a lean spell — it might require a replay.

CHESTERFIELD v SPENNYMOOR

United, though leaders of North East Counties League, did not impress despite overcoming Northwich in the last round. Can't see anything other than an emphatic home win.

ALTRINCHAM v HUDDERSFIELD

I'll be tuned in for this one, where an upset looks possible. Alty are hitting form at the right time and the Yorkshire side's form is very patchy. Play safe and forecast a draw.

FA CUP RUN-DOWN with Wolfgang

BIRMINGHAM v CHELTENHAM

Blues boss Dave Mackay has said publicly that he'll resign if his side don't win promotion this season. What will his reaction be if they go out today to the struggling Conference side? Shouldn't worry too much Dave, it looks a very good home banker.

FULHAM v FARNBOROUGH

Now then Could be shock here for the Cottagers, they are not really putting it together, whereas Borough are going great guns and among the pacesetters in the Beazer Premier. I'm tipping Farnboro to go through.

SWANSEA v WELLING

Another tight one. Welling, who put out Reading last season, could surprise the Vetch Field side whose form is not convincing thus far. Welsh fervour could carry them through but don't rule out a draw.

BARNET v CHELMSFORD

Everyone was expecting this one to be Barnet v Kettering, but the Essex side struggling in the league, pulled off the surprise of the round and then had their manager, George Borg, resign the day after the Kettering tie. Barnet should figure in round two.

BRENTFORD v YEOVIL

Two giant-killers of their own kind clash at Griffin Park. Yeovil had high hopes for this season — now fading league-wise — so they may get their act together for the Cup. I'll go for a draw today.

COLCHESTER v READING

The home side will feel they have a point to prove here, in that their loss of League status is just a hiccup. Could be tough, but I'll plump for a home win.

LITTLEHAMPTON v NORTHAMPTON

Plenty of scope for the joke-makers here, but the home side from the Sussex league have already cashed in from the league sponsors for getting this far. It looks like the end of the road for the minnows today.

ALDERSHOT v TIVERTON

First time beyond the qualifying rounds for the Western Leaguers, however, Aldershot's wretched form could suggest a turn-up.

AYLESBURY v WALSALL

The Ducks v The Saddlers — Walsall, possibly the greatest giant-killers of all time, could be on the receiving end themselves today. Aylesbury are going well and in the running to regain Conference status — home win.

BOSTON v WYCOMBE

No headlines for the winners of this tie, and with Wycombe having the form edge, it could be the Wanderers to progress — after a replay.

MERTYR TYDFIL v SUTTON

Sutton, one of nine non-league clubs to oust First Division opposition from the Cup, will have their work cut out in S. Wales. I fancy the home side, by the odd goal.

WOKING v KIDDERMINSTER

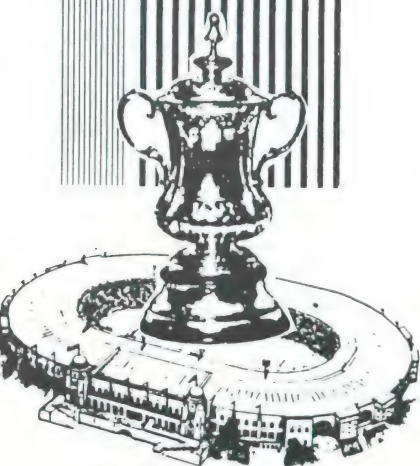

The Harriers travel to the Vauxhall League leaders Woking and will do very well get a result. Bookies make the home team favourites and I feel I must go along with that.

CARDIFF v HAYES

Mid-table in the Vauxhall League, Hayes travel to Vetch Field and can expect to come away with a share of the gate receipts. Home win.

WITTON v BOLTON

Now then!!!

ALBION REVIEW

WITTON CONTINUE TO PULL IN THE CROWDS

Albion are way ahead in the League's Attendance charts published last weekend. The 10 games at Wincham Park attracting an average of 852 through the turnstiles. Second in the list is Hyde United with an average 619 from their 8 home fixtures. Leek Town are the only other club with over 500 per game, 583 to be precise at their 10 games. Most other sides are averaging between 300 and 400 whilst Marine, South Liverpool and Horwich are attracting 282, 267 and 233 respectively.

In the First Division Accrington Stanley continue to lead the way with an average of 438 watching their first 7 games. Then follows Emley (374 from 4 games), Whitley Bay (321 from 8) and somewhat surprisingly Netherfield (308 from 8). The bulk of the remainder are between 127 and 195 with Irlam Town still managing to keep going with an average of 82 at their games to date. Locally Winsford United have an average of 179 at 10 games whilst Congleton are worse still with 156 from 8.

MIXED FORTUNES IN THE WELSH CUP

Bangor City and Caernarfon Town made it through last Saturday at the expense of Stourbridge and Llay R.B.L. respectively. Rhyl went out 1-3 at Colwyn Bay and Newtown after getting a great 1-1 draw at Hereford United were due to replay last Tuesday.

AUSTIN GOES A.W.O.L.

Leek Town would be very interested to hear the whereabouts of that nomadic forward Austin Salmon. He only joined Leek last month from Winsford United but the club have not seen hide nor hair of him recently — I knew Bridge's No. 5 reminded me of someone!

THREE OFF AT GOOLE

Last Saturday's match with Southport saw goal hero Ian Baines dismissed along with Goole's player/manager Terry Curran.

WHITLEY BAY HONOURED

Named by the FA Non-League Directory as "FA CUP TEAM OF THE YEAR" for last season were Whitley Bay. Bay have recently signed Joe Olabode who was Gateshead's top scorer, he is though ineligible for this year.

I wonder whether this means our order for Directories is near arriving!
